BASEBALL MEETING. EIGHT TEAMS FROM VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

The meeting of the baseball managers was called to order last night by Mr. John T. Brady, president, at the Monticello hotel. Mr. E. J. Doran was the secretary.

It was the annual meeting of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Baseball League of Virginia.

After a full discussion of an hour, it was decided that the league to be formed should be composed of four cities of Virginia and four cities of North Carolina.

The following teams are to constitute the Virginia circuit—namely: Richmond, Newport News, Hampton, Norfolk and Portsmouth.

The following cities in North Carolina are to be considered in selecting the four teams from there—namely: Wilmington, Charlotte, Raleigh, Durham, Tarboro and Wilson.

It was also decided that the various railways should be requested to be represented at the next meeting to submit rates.

It was also decided that an outside man would be selected as president of the league. This would guarantee more satisfaction to all concerned. The meeting was adjourned to December 18, at Monticello, at 8 p. m.

The meeting was enthusiastic. The salary list is to be sufficient to insure the employment of good players. Letters from North Carolina towns are encouraging.

The indications are that there will be fast ball for next year at least. Mr. John F. Smith, the newly elected president of the Norfolk Baseball association, was present at the meeting. He said that he has signed for his team in 1901 John F. Mullen, an outfielder, fast man, and Otto Rapp, a pitcher, late of Springfield, O., brother to third baseman Rapp, of the Portsmouth team.

These are in addition to his last year's team. Manager Smith will remain in Norfolk till Saturday night, when he will leave for his home, Bristol, Pa.

The players about the hotel corridor last night were Messrs. B. M. Ashenback, of Hampton; Winn Clark, of Portsmouth; C. E. Kain, of Richmond; James A. Smith, E. M. Gilligan and F. E. Armstrong, all of Norfolk.

ATLANTIC CITY.

A very interesting game of football was played yesterday morning between the Atlantic City Juniors and the Cottage Place team of Portsmouth, resulting in a victory for the latter, the game standing 7 to 5 for the Portsmouth boys. A feature of the game was the fine playing of Hudson.

A very interesting Thanksgiving service was held at the Colley Memorial Presbyterian church last night.

Monday next, the 3d of December, a carnival will begin at the W. C. T. U. hall, to continue through the week.

AN AWFUL TRAGEDY LAST NIGHT.

THE JURY.

The jury was summoned from among the bystanders, of whom there were about fifty, one-third of them negroes. Their names are as follows: Peter Guillen, J. H. Murden, J. M. George, A. A. Redd, H. C. Gallup and John McClelland.

The testimony was simple and short. Justice Hawks asked the reporter for the Virginian-Pilot to take the evidence, which is in substance as follows:

RICHARD GARY.

Richard Gary, colored, said Fogarty came into the saloon, called Lewis a vile name, saying come here, and fired. Every man in the place ran away; can't say who fired the last shot. The men had had a lot of words. Fogarty went away and came back, shooting as he came in the door.

Did not see Lewis shoot; don't know who else shot. Every one moved when it began and I moved too. Lewis was talking and laughing before the shooting began. They had quarreled before the shooting.

GEORGE CROWLING.

George Crowling is the barkeeper. He said there had been a row started by Fogarty and Kinnear. Lewis ordered them out of the saloon. Fogarty came back firing. Mr. Lewis fired in self-defense. Fogarty had been gone half an hour. Lewis was not behind the bar. Fogarty fired two shots before Lewis shot; can't tell how many shots were fired. Fogarty ran in firing. After Lewis shot Fogarty, Fogarty ran out and fell.

J. F. TROLLINGER.

J. F. Trollinger was an eye witness. He said Fogarty came into the bar by the front door. Lewis was standing at the bar. Fogarty fired three times. Fogarty ran as he fired.

Lewis did not know he was hit. There had been a difficulty, and Fogarty had left. He came back and fired. Lewis said: "You have killed me," and fired once. He could not have fired another shot. He was not physically able to fire again. Fogarty fired three times. He fired the first shot from the door and two shots from within three feet of Lewis.

CAPT. J. C. WHITE.

Capt. J. C. White, a police officer, said he was coming down Calvert street when some one told him there was a row in the saloon. He hurried to the place and found Jim Kinnear outside bleeding. He had been to Lewis' saloon and had been beaten, he said. He saw Lewis, who asked him to go to exchange hats with Fogarty, who had his hat. Lewis said he did not wish to go for fear of trouble. He did not want any trouble. Exchange hats for me. Just as I got across the street the firing began; came back and found Fogarty lying here dead with this pistol (showing the self-cocking revolver) on his breast. He was dead when I came. Whole difficulty must have been caused by Fogarty coming in on Lewis. The shooting occurred while I was out exchanging hats. Lewis asked me to exchange hats.

THE VERDICT.

Justice Hawks requested the jury to retire to consult and bring in a verdict. Within fifteen minutes the jury returned with the following:

We, the jury, find that Thomas Fogarty came to his death from a pistol in the hands of Church Lewis, who was justified.

LEWIS' CONDITION.

The condition of Lewis at 3 o'clock this morning is fairly good. There is no immediate danger for two or three days. If he gets along well then he will recover.

The wounds are as follows: The first bullet grazed the right hip and was not found. It probably dropped into the trousers leg.

The second bullet entered at the right arm pit and lodged in the body.

The third bullet entered the lower part of the chest, just above the liver. The ball was not found and it made a dangerous wound. It went into the chest at a vital place.

Still he was not in a dangerous condition this morning, although he was suffering great pain.

PRESIDENT'S THANKSGIVING.

HOW PRESIDENT MCKINLEY SPENT YESTERDAY.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in Washington. All the executive departments of the government were closed and deserted, save for a few officials, who came to attend to the mail. Many of the government employees left the city to spend the day in other States. The municipal offices and most of the stores were closed. The White House bore a deserted appearance. President McKinley spent a little time in the morning in his office and at 11 o'clock entered his carriage and was driven to the Metropolitan M. E. Church, where he attended the Thanksgiving service. Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the church, conducted the services. The President went alone. Mrs. McKinley took a short drive during the forenoon.

The day was spent quietly by the Presidential household in accordance with Mrs. McKinley's desire to observe it in as homelike a way as possible. For two or three years past there have been no invited guests, and the White House dinner to night was partaken of by the President and Mrs. McKinley alone.

Alabama's New Governor.

Counterfeiting in Hayti.
 (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
 Port-Au-Prince, Hayti, Nov. 29.—(Via Haytian Cable.)—The judicial authorities having been informed that many twenty-dollar gold pieces, made by counterfeiters, were circulating in Hayti, consulted with the national banks. The latter, after an investigation, found that a large number of counterfeit gold coins of the denomination mentioned were in circulation. It is estimated that the counterfeiters amount to about $20,000. The police are now inquiring into the matter.

Emaciated, Pale and Badly Run Down by Catarrh!

HE IS ENTIRELY WELL NOW

Mr. Gorley says: I WAS BADLY RUN DOWN LAST SPRING AND SUMMER BY CATARRH of the nose, throat and stomach. I WAS SO PALE AND MY COMPLEXION WAS JUST THE COLOR OF WHITE WAX AND ANYONE COULD TELL JUST BY LOOKING AT ME THAT I WAS A VERY SICK MAN. At that time I was employed as a traveling salesman and I consulted many physicians in the various cities I visited. MORE THAN A DOZEN DOCTORS in Danville, Lynchburg, Staunton; Cumberland, Md., and Norfolk, TRIED THEIR SKILL ON MY CASE BUT I ONLY WENT FROM BAD TO WORSE. I PAID OUT OVER A HUNDRED DOLLARS IN FEES BUT WITHOUT BENEFIT. They did not seem to know what ailed me or what to do to remedy my trouble. If I had been staying in Norfolk I would have consulted DR. FIREY at once, but being on the road I tried others and did not go to him until I HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE OF GETTING RELIEF ELSEWHERE. UNDER DR. FIREY'S TREATMENT I BEGAN TO IMPROVE AT ONCE AND PROGRESSED STEADILY UNTIL NOW after a couple of months treatment I FEEL AS WELL AS I EVER DID IN MY LIFE. I have known DR. FIREY ten years and know that he is a skillful physician and conscientious gentleman, whom it gives me pleasure to recommend to those needing his services. A. L.
